How to be Blessed When Reading God's Word (Some Suggestions):

1. Begin 1st thing in the morning (the best time for devotions) and give yourself at least 20 mins.
2. Before you start to read, begin with prayer asking God to reveal to you the lessons He wishes for you to learn each day.
3. You can even record a journal of each day's readings marking any notes or thoughts that you discover. This journal can also include questions you may have that you would like to study further in more detail or study them with someone else at a later time.
4. Once you have finished your reading, close with a

Daily Bible Reading Challenge

Back to the Bible is a one year Bible reading plan that schedules the readings from Genesis to Revelation according to their chronological sequence (i.e. the sequence that the events in the Bible actually occurred in Earth's history) rather than reading the Bible in the order that the books are organized.

31:	Rev 19:1 – 22:21

time of prayer, reflecting on the lessons God revealed to you.

5. Keep up with the reading daily! Don't fall behind! But if you fall behind by more than a couple of days, just pick up with the current day's reading schedule.

6. Continue to plug through some of the "boring" parts of the Bible. God will open your mind to understanding you never thought would be possible...even through these parts of Scripture.

7. Start or join a weekly "Book "club with the Bible where your group follows this reading plan. You can get together weekly for fellowship, prayer, & discussion on the reading.

& click on "The One Year Daily Bible Reading Challenge" link.

This is a wonderful devotional reading plan that will allow you to finish the Bible in one year. It will allow you to compare the same stories in different books of the Bible as they were recorded by various authors.

Are you up for the challenge?
